Striving to Follow

THE 1944 MC KENDREAN

McKendreans are proud of their Alma Mater and her rich heritage. For more than one hundred and sixteen years McKendree has stood for the highest and best in education and character building, and, struggling as she is in this third year of the U. S.'s participation in World War II to keep on the move, her stately old buildings remind us that McKendree is strong and durable — well able to stand even in the face of almost unbearable hardships. Her almost-a-century-old Chapel building, whose spire majestically rises from among the branches of age-old trees to find its apex towering above even the greatest of God's own handiwork, symbolizes McKendree's noble and lofty ideals. McKendree is proud to be a child of the great Methodist Church, which this year, through the leadership of its episcopal officers, is crusading for a just and lasting peace. It is our hope that everything about McKendree may fall in line with the ideals and teachings of "The Prince of Peace". McKendree, in her own humble way, is anxious to do her part to support the church in its endeavors to carry out a program which will help lead our country into lasting Christian fellowship with all peoples.

. . .we dedicate the 1944 McKENDREAN. During his eight years as president of McKendree College, Dr. Clark R. Yost has given his all in the interest of the school. Especially since Pearl Harbor our president has literally poured out his spiritual, mental, and physical energies in steady streams so that the program at McKendree might continue to be the best to be found among schools of its standing. His contribution to McKendree cannot be expressed in words. Theodore Roosevelt gave McKendree the title, "The best in the Middle West." We who have known Dr. Yost during the last few years, as he has led McKendree and as he has constantly championed the cause of Christian education, are ready to give him the title, "The best leader of 'The best in the Middle West' ".

PHILOSOPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

PHILO

Philo began the year with four members, the war having almost decimated our numbers. One of these, Hal Nothdurft, was soon taken. We did not deem it advisable to meet during the first semester, although we did elect officers. However, we did not cease to function as an organization.

At the beginning of the second semester things began looking up. We pledged eight new members, several of whom made their marks in basketball. Though Philo members are busy with many other activities, we find time to meet every Monday at 12:30 p.m.

The Philo spirit moves on, even in wartime. Philo influence will continue to be felt on McKendree Campus.

PLATO

Plato began the year, its 95th, with only one member left from the group of 1942-43. For a time it looked as if the society had lost its place on the Campus when twelve of its fourteen members were graduated or entered the armed services, but last fall nine pledges came into Plato, and the organization carried on in its usual energetic way

This year Plato kept its reputation for athletics by having four members on the basketball squad. The manager of the team was also a Platonian.

Most of the society's members have one or two years more of college to complete. For this reason we feel sure that although the membership may be small, Plato will keep on boosting McKendree.

CLIO

The only girls' literary society on this campus is Clio, which helps the girls develop a well-balanced personality and gives them experience in speaking before others. Literary programs which are chosen by the critics are given each Monday night. They consist of declamations, impromptus, essays, assigned addresses, current events, parliamentary drill, and music. These programs are varied and interesting and are formed around a central theme.

Eleven new members were pledged into the society this year.

Four open sessions were given during the year and the prominent social event of Sadie Hawkins Day was sponsored by the girls of Clio.

This organization receives the support and cooperation of all Clionians. They enjoy the meetings very much.

SIGMA BETA RHO

With the growing complexity of life for the individual under present world wide conditions, there is a profound need for a balanced life. Sigma Beta Rho was instituted for this very purpose.

Slowly but surely we are realizing that the Master's practice of quietly slipping aside for a worship period with the Father gives us poise with a deeper understanding and a broader view of life's tasks.

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."—II Timothy: 2:15.

"Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ."—II Timothy: 2:3.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

SIGMA TAU DELTA

This is the eighth year of the Alpha Iota chapter of Sigma Tau Delta on the campus. This organization is a national honorary English fraternity for the purpose of learning to appreciate literature and of creating the desire to write. The meetings are held at the home of Dr. West and consist of creative writing and reviews on current books of popular interest.

Three new members were received into the society this year.

SIGMA ZETA

The Sigma Zeta honorary society is a national organization whose purpose is to encourage scientific study and to recognize students of high scholarship in natural sciences and mathematics. The Beta Chapter at McKendree College was organized in 1926.

During this school year Prof. H. C. Gutekunst, head of the department of chemistry, and Mr. Thomas T. Gordon, a senior majoring in Mathematics, have been initiated. These, with Dean Stowell, have constituted the active chapter this year.

Although with depleted ranks, the society plans to carry on and to be prepared for useful work both now and when the peace comes.

YMCA CABINET

YMCA

The YMCA, in spite of having a limited membership, functioned as usual this year. Four delegates were sent to the YM-YWCA Conference held at Shurtleff College in November.

During the year, the YMCA met on Wednesday evenings. Many of the programs consisted of combined sessions with the YWCA. Student ministers were the speakers at most of the joint meetings. Harold Kuebler, assistant regional secretary of the YMCA, spoke at one of the combined sessions in February.

The Y's officers for the year: president, Don Harmon (1), Gehl Devore (2); vice-president, Gehl Devore (1), William Stallings (2); program chairman, Larry Jones; social chairman, William Searles; chaplain, Mode Powell; secretary-treasurer, Peter Notaros; pianist, Robert Stadge.

YWCA

This year the association continued to fulfill its requirements to become a participating "Y" in the national organization. Several of the officers attended a conference in November at Shurtleff College, Alton. They sent a representative to the Lake Geneva Conference in June.

The Y.W. held some of its weekly meetings with the Y.M. in Clio Hall, with the student ministers providing the programs. The Y.W. also cooperated with the Y.M. in planning social activities for the campus.

The officers for the year: president, Joyce Ann Keon; vice-president, Maxine Ball; program chairman, Margaret Harshbarger; secretary-treasurer, Gloria Stephens; social chairman, Ruth Koerber; pianist, Vergene Jones; sponsor, Mrs. C. J. Stawell; chaplain, Edna Kampmeyer; room chairmen, Flossie Hortin, Dorothy Faulkner.

CHORUS

The chorus aims to give pleasure and relaxatian to its members. It gives experience in group singing and stimulates interest in music.

This year our group of singing voices filled its usual appointments at churches and provided special music for many of our chapel services. Besides the farmal functions of the charus one of the outstanding events in this year was the Hallawe'en Party spansored by the chorus.

The chorus, under the direction of Miss Eula R. Smith, elected Vergene Jones, president; Shirley Bergman, vice-president; Edna Kampmeyer, secretary; Larry Jones, treasurer; Flanda Jones, social chairman, and Wyvona Luman, pianist.

TRIO

The women's tria is chosen fram members of the charus. The trio sang at Salem, O'Fallan and in our local Methodist Church. They also furnished special music at the college on variaus occasians. The members are Vergene Jones, first saprana; Shirley Bergman, second soprano; and Virginia Phillips, alto.

The members of the tria are also soloists, and all have made several public appearances this year. As we think of their singing we are reminded of the wards of Ben Johnson:

"The voice so sweet, the words so fair,
As some saft chime had straked the air;
And thaugh the sound were parted thence,
Still left an echo in the sense."

STUDENT-FACULTY COUNCIL

STUDENT-FACULTY COUNCIL

Democratic living is the principle set forth by this council. Representatives from the faculty, the two dormitories, student body, the commuters, and the Lebanonites meet once a month to discuss and solve problems to further Christion democracy upon our campus.

This year the council decided that a Homecoming would be unpotriotic because of the war emergency program. However, a day was set aside on which a committee meeting was called and a basketball game and a play were the afternoon and night features. The council approved of the change in the Christmas vacation and an extra day was added.

By promoting democracy upon our campus we hope to instill it permonently into the minds of the students, our future Americans.

Chairmon: Dr. C. R. Yost.

Secretaries: Harmon (1), Horshbarger (2).

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SOCIETY

The purpose of this new organization is to promote an international understanding and good will among the students of many allied countries. Progress is very promising.

The membership is large, considering the number of foreign language students and the new orgonization.

During our meetings we have helped beginning language students to write letters in Spanish or French. The nomes of the interesting pen-pals were sent on request. It is exciting to read of the lives of young people in allied countries. The development of the interest of our allies toward us is grotifying.

Mrs. Gutekunst is the interested sponsor and organizer.

OFFICERS

President: Gloria Stephens.

Vice-president: Miriam Michels.

Secretary-treasurer: Max Martin.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges is a standard directory and index of information containing biographies of distinguished students throughout America. Selection of students to be recognized in Who's Who is made devoid of politics, initiation fees, and dues. On this page are listed the McKendreans, four seniors and two juniors, who will be listed in the 1943-44 edition of Who's Who.

DONALD HARMON
(Senior)

Dan's leadership and cheerful smile helped to win many friends. His spartsmanship was shown in the basketball games in which he participated. He has a bubbling sense of humor and we shall always remember his keen wit.

THOMAS GORDON
(Junior)

His quiet personality and ever-ready smile proclaimed him the honar of leadership in his classes. His amazing ability in chemistry and mathematics has praved that he is a true student.

MARGARET HARSHBARGER
(Senior)

"Harshie" has a keen sense of humar, which everyone admires. Her leadership and persistence were shown through her successful participation af church organizatians and campus activities. Her laughter has resounded aver the Old Hill for four happy years.

JOYCE ANN KEAN
(Junior)

"Jake" has a pleasant vaice and lavely manners. Her high scholastic standing has proved that she is a competent leader in the many offices she has filled.

GEHL DEVORE
(Senior)

Gehl's scholastic ability stands out an the Old Hill. He was always willing ta lend a helping hand when it was needed.

VERGENE JENKINS JONES
(Senior)

Vergene's musical talents have been appreciated by McKendree students and autsiders. From a "Voice of Experience", she can relate interesting facts concerning the life of an army wife. We respect her for coming back to school to graduate.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

With the war taking most of the men away from the campus this year, McKendree was fortunate enough to have a basketball squad. All of the players were new on the team; nevertheless a good fighting spirit was prevalent throughout the season. The squad was handicapped by most of the team living off the campus. At the end of the first semester McK lost their captain, Don Harman, and another important player, John McKnelly. Edward Wright come the second semester and played some good ball as forward and guard.

The team won four out of seven games which is very good considering the inexperience and the difficulty in training. Most of the players will be back on the campus again next year and the Purple and Whites should once again see a good season.

BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

Viehe Jackson, Freshman

Nashville — Guard

As a first letter man Jackson played good offensive ball. His long shots helped the Bearcats in many a tight pinch. Jackson was always there to receive the ball and could be counted upon to bring the ball across the line. He still has three more years to prove his worth with the Bearcats.

Captain Gehl Devore, Senior

Altamont — Forward

Starting late in the season, Gehl was able to maintain his fighting spirit and to encourage the fellows to four triumphant games. His ability for long shots made him the leading scorer of the season. Gehl was the pushing force behind the whole team. Gehl's leadership and good sportsmanship will be remembered by every member of the team.

Arthur Kleinschmidt, Sophomore

Lebanon — Center

"Art's" height, along with his ability, made him an essential part of every game. "Art" showed a willing and conscientious spirit at all times. He was always under the basket for the rebounds and added many points to McKendree's score. He should be the nucleus around which the team will be built next year.

Victor Donaldson, Freshman

Shobanier — Forward

"Vic" always played a cool, steady game and made his share of points for McKendree. He did exceptionally well in the victory over Greenville. Donaldson will be an asset to the team next year.

Ira Thetford, Sophomore

Freeburg — Guard

"Tiny" could always be depended upon to handle the ball well. He was even tempered and played a good, clean game. Thetford will be a great help in building a future team. No matter what the score was Thetford always kept his fighting spirit.

Larry Jones, Senior

Fredericktown, Mo. — Guard

Larry was always alert and fighting and he played to win. He was consistent in his play, both on offense and defense. This is Larry's last basketball season and McKendree can be proud of his addition to the team.

Department of Physical Education for Women, Instructor, Vergene Jones.

In the school year 1943-44 this department presented two outstanding performances. A program of December, 1943 consisted of "A Model Parade", "An Indian Tranquil," and a "Military Flag Drill."

The May Pole Revels of 1944 was under the direction of the P. E. Class. A most difficult and beautiful performance was given.

Members of the class presented several ideas for the May Pole Festivity.

Class periods were composed of physical exercises to stimulate gracefulness; to correct posture; to develop proper walking habits, and to bring into use muscles which are often neglected and undeveloped.

The women of the class developed creative ability by presenting suggestions and ideas pertaining to rhythmical patterns; descriptive stunting; and developed coordination in group performance.

DRUMS OF DEATH

Drums of Death, a three-act mystery comedy, takes place on a desolate stretch of the Atlantic Coast.

The plot revolves about the lost magic stone of an African tribe. Thompson and his band of negro cut-throats try to take the stone away from the Bailey mansion, where it is hidden. Bailey has his henchmen, too. Thus, a war rages. Ghosts, monsters, and hooded figures run on the rampage as the plot unfolds.

This play was the students' contribution for May Day and also to touch in some way McK's "funny bone" in these times.

PECULIAR TRENDS

THE CLASS OF '44

The history of the Class of 1944 follows a peculiar trend. When we graduating seniors assembled to write the history of our class, we found that only two of those who will be presented with sheep-skins on graduation day were among those who matriculated at McKendree in 1940 and will finish in May. They are Margaret Harshbarger and Gehl Devore. The others graduating either started before September, 1940 or, by attending summer school, finished their courses last September. The two who matriculated in 1940 and completed their work last fall are Beatrice Attey and Calvin Ryan.

The other members of our graduating class began their college careers and finished at various times, as follows: Don Harmon and James Owens entered McKendree in 1939 and completed their work at the end of the first semester of this school year. George Kennedy came to McKendree from Millikin as a sophomore in 1941 and graduated at the end of the 1943 term. Malcolm Myres came to McKendree from Blackburn as a junior in January 1942 and completed his work last summer. Jesse Seiber came to McKendree as a second semester freshman, transferring credits from Trinity Gospel Bible School at Evansville, Indiana, in 1941. Cyril Curtis matriculated in 1939 and finished last summer.

Edna Kraemer receives her degree with this graduating class. In 1941 Maxine Ball came from Blackburn as a second semester freshman and finishes in May. Alvin Whittemore began pre-college work at McKendree in 1940 and graduates in May. Robert Herman enrolled at McKendree in 1938 and is listed among the graduating seniors. Vergene Jenkins Jones, who received the Public School Music Diploma from McKendree in 1938, returned to the campus last summer and will finish her A.B. degree with this class.

Let us now reminisce. The fifty-eight freshmen of 1940, under the able leadership of President Boyd "Tex" Anderson, made history by gaining possession of the chapel bell, after enjoying an undisturbed freshman picnic. Vice-president Bob Matthews, Secretary Alberta Young, and Treasurer Bonnie Bell ably assisted "Tex" in the aforementioned incident and in carrying on the other activities of the class.

The thirty members of the sophomore class of 1941, with the efficient leadership of Gehl Devore, aided by Vice-president Margaret Saxe, Secretary Bob Matthews, Treasurer Robert Dannenbrink, and Sergeant of Arms Boyd Anderson, were active in various school activities. Several members of the class took part in that famous hair cutting initiation incident, which will not soon be forgotten by the '41 freshmen.

The fifteen juniors, with George Kennedy as President, Margaret Harshbarger, Vice-president, Maxine Ball, Secretary, Art Hinson, Treasurer, Robert Dannenbrink, Sergeant of Arms, were campus leaders and were instrumental in helping to promote extra curricular activities.

The fifteen seniors, only eight of whom have been on the campus this school year, headed by Gehl Devore, with Vice-president James Owens, Secretary Vergene Jones, Treasurer Maxine Ball, Sergeant of Arms Margaret Harshbarger and Don Harmon, have made up in quality what they have lacked in quantity. Members of the class have been leaders of various organizations and groups, including the three literary societies, student body, glee club, "Y's", dramatic societies, and athletics.

The changing constituency of the class may be attributed largely to the numerous abnormalities brought about by World War II. We have not exactly "set the world on fire", but many of the ambitious freshmen who came to the "Old Hill" in 1940 are helping to extinguish the fires of hatred and greed, which are both causes and results of war.

PECULIAR TRENDS

THE CLASS OF '45

Although the class of '45 was greatly diminished in number from the previous year, it was not diminished in the force it had upon McKendree, both socially and academically.

When we started our learning on the "Old Hill" there were fifty boys and girls, but soon after we arrived here the war turned us into mature ladies and gentlemen. The men began to leave one by one to enter the armed forces and the girls to become teachers and war workers.

Although our freshie year was marked by green caps, a successful picnic, and a now famous bell ringing, we have remained gay, but not as lighthearted. We think of our class members from New Guinea to England, and then we turn to study our accelerated program, so we can soon work and fight to make democracy live.

Perhaps there will be only a few of us walk the Centennial Path in caps and gowns to receive our degrees, but all of us, regardless of where we strayed by the wayside, will remember the life on the "Old Hill", and know that perhaps we did something for the proud name of McKendree, which we will always revere and honor!

THE CLASS OF '46

A year ago you saw us, thirty-six new faces in the yearbook. In the fall we came, happy and carefree, hoping to find an honored place in the ranks of loyal McKendreans. The upper classmen and friends of the college gave us the heartiest welcome ever, and soon we felt at home.

It was not long until we began to understand that ours was a position to be envied. Determined to uphold our college for four busy years before becoming active alumni, we accepted the McKendree traditions as our own. We became a happy crowd and our associations here during two short years have not diminished that feeling.

How well we remember those nights when, footsore and weary, our boys spent long hours on the open road with only the stars for company. The none-the-less-stronger sex of our class suffered similar humiliation when roped together and forced to wear costumes befitting a family reunion of witches, then marched about in the streets of Lebanon. According to some, Lake Beautiful is not any too suitable for a bathing place. We added all this social orientation to college life to our list of memories and pressed on toward upper class standings.

This spring finds more than half of our boys supporting in another way—by supporting our nation. While we wait for the day when our pals, friends, and sweethearts will come back, we, the class of '46, claim a double share of that famed spirit of '76 in carrying on and in lifting our alma mater to greater fame than ever before.

". . . . May we ever hold thee true and wise and right
Honor purple and the white
And for victory we'll always fight
Till we win for old McK.

THE CLASS OF '47

When we, the class of '47, enrolled as the freshmen of McKendree last September, we were just as green and scared as the average college freshman. Before many days had passed, however, we had learned our way around the campus and had begun to feel a part of the college.

Eager to do our part in upholding McKendree's traditions, we elected Mode Powell as our leader. Harold Garrett as vice-president, Dorothy Faulkner as secretary, and "Beckie" Giles as treasurer, ably assisted our president in all the undertakings. We held the annual freshman picnic and endured the moonlight hikes and dips in Lake Beautiful that accompanied initiation week. We proved our ability and talent by giving an all-freshman program in the chapel.

At the close of our first year at McKendree, we are proud to have lived that year. We have accepted as our own the high ideals and standards of the college that has been serving its country so faithfully for over one hundred years. Now we are looking forward to our next three years in the college on the "Old Hill".

ALMA MATER

A college 'mid plains is standing
Standing there from olden days . . .
A pioneer of learning
First in untrodden ways
For service and Christian culture,
For efficiency she stands . . .
Her sons and daughters praise her
With voices, hearts and hands . . .

CHORUS

Hail to thee our dear old McKendree
May we always loyal be . . .
It's a song of praise we raise to thee
Alma Mater dear old M-C . . .
May we ever hold thee true and wise and right
Honor purple and the white
And for victory we'll always fight
Til we win for old Mc-K . . .

Enduring and strong she stands there,
Stands upon our College Hill . . .
Tho' others may out-number
She holds the first place still,
For beauty, truth and knowledge,
And for service without bound . . .
Then let us raise our voices
Until the plains resound . . .
